A Word From Our President

Dr. Ray C. Phillips

Dear Cumberland University Students:

Every year, Cumberland University passes milestones and creates new levels of achievement to surpass. The 1993-94 academic year was no exception; consider these accomplishments: Fall semester enrollment reached a record-breaking 1,001 students; an innovative Writing Across the Curriculum Program was implemented; the 1994 edition of "Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities" included CU students for the first time since 1984; The Phoenix Players and the Cumberland Singers Ensemble performed in six student productions, including Cabaret — the first musical to be performed at CU; Sigma Sigma Sigma National Sorority installed Zeta Xi chapter; the football team played in its first NAIA playoff game after ending the regular season with a 9-1 record; and the 1994 graduating class of 170 was the largest in the history of the University and included the first students to complete the BSN degree program.

Cumberland University is poised and has within its grasp the potential of becoming, not only one of the best, but the best educational opportunity and choice for students. I want to congratulate the students of CU whose commitment to the liberal arts tradition has contributed to our reputation for academic excellence.

Dedication

Mrs. Imogene Bradley Ahles

Mrs. Imogene Ahles

Mrs. Ahles, a long time administrative secretary to the president of CU, passed away after a long battle with lung cancer in July of 1993. She had worked for Cumberland for over 40 years and was very knowledgeable of its history.

This past December, her husband, Judge Ahles, took a special interest in the "Love Lights a Tree" fundraiser for the American Cancer Society and was honorary chairman. The tree lighting ceremony was dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Ahles.

Mrs. Ahles was an asset to Cumberland and she is missed greatly. This is why the Phoenix Staff chose her to dedicate the 1993-94 Phoenix to. She had so much to contribute to the community and she will always be remembered.

Melissa and Kathy make sure they have enough materials for the decorations.

Matt works up to the last minute, making sure everything is right for the Spring formal.

The 1993-1994 Student Government Association stayed on top of things, serving the campus as well as the community. Some of the activities that SGA sponsored: dances, Spring Formal, Spring Fling Week, Big Dawg on Campus contest, Cookouts, Scavenger Hunts, Bonfire, Faculty Appreciation Day, and numerous other activities. SGA acts as a voice of CU students and does a great job here at Cumberland.

From the SGA sumo wrestling team are Kathy Palk and Richard Shaver.

The Science Club

The Science Club is the place to be to learn new things and have fun at the same time. In the Fall, some members went on a hiking trip at Fall Creek Falls, learning about the plants, trees, and animals as they made toward their campsite. In the Spring, students in the Aquatic Biology class took a field trip to Destin, Fl. where they collected shells, fish, and other aquatic specimen. The Science Club also recycles aluminum cans on the CU campus.

The Cumberland Collegian is a publication of the students of Cumberland University. It informs students of campus activities, sports events, and expresses views of students. Students can earn one hour's credit per semester for working on the Collegian.

Bits-N-Pieces

Bars on Windows

The controversy over bars on dorm windows began last year when they were placed on the windows at Mary White Hall. Now, The Collegian has received complaints about Edward Potter Hall. Residents are upset that the windows only open a couple of inches instead of the wide breadth to which they formerly reached, citing fire escape as their reason. According to University President Dr. Ray C. Phillips, the bars are in place for the safety of the residents and are within fire code regulations. Dr. Phillips insists they were not placed there to prevent women from being sneaked into the rooms.

Although bars on the windows are aggravating and prevent the flow of fresh air, a more serious problem should be addressed. The restrictions on opposite sex visitation. Restricting the nights that one can have a member of the opposite sex in their room is ridiculous. First of all, the rule is not going to stop the visitations from occurring, and secondly, it just adds to disciplinary problems. At the rates charged for dorm rooms these days, restricting visitation adds insult to injury. Cumberland is a liberal arts college, not a seminary and certainly not a monastery.

Purloined Final Exam: Dr. Dressler

By Thomas Cook

1. When is rabbit season?
2. When is deer season?
3. When is quail season?
4. When is bald eagle season?
5. For easy "A," would you be willing to buy my hunting licenses for the hunting seasons listed above?
6. Are you functionally literate?
7. If your answer to question #6 was "no," then none of the other questions will mean much to you, either.
8. Who is buried in Grant's tomb?
9. Which tastes better, bald eagle or spotted owl?
10. DISCUSSION: List every officer involved (Union and Confederate) in the Battle of Gettysburg. Tell their rank, which side each fought for, each one's importance in the battle, whether or not he died in the battle, and each one's grandmother's favorite dish.

BONUS: If a married couple from Arkansas moves to California, then later gets a divorce, are they still legally brother and sister?

People! People! People! What are we doing?

College, just like society, is meant to be a cooperative community—all of its members working together. But we don't. Every day, we do whatever it takes to get to the top. We lie. We cheat. We steal. And for what? To improve our image? To become better people? I don't think so! We do it so we can get what we want when we want it. We are selfish creatures, and our selfishness shows.

When will we begin thinking about others instead of ourselves? We must start being considerate, being human, now. We can fulfill neither our potential nor our community's potential until we do.

★ Extra! ★ Extra! ★ Bulldogs Explode!!

LEBANON, Tenn. — We are so proud of our Dawgs! In the fourth season of CU's "Risen from the Dead" football program, the bulldogs triumphed to near perfection with a season record of 9-2 and a trip to the 1st round of the NAIA Playoffs.

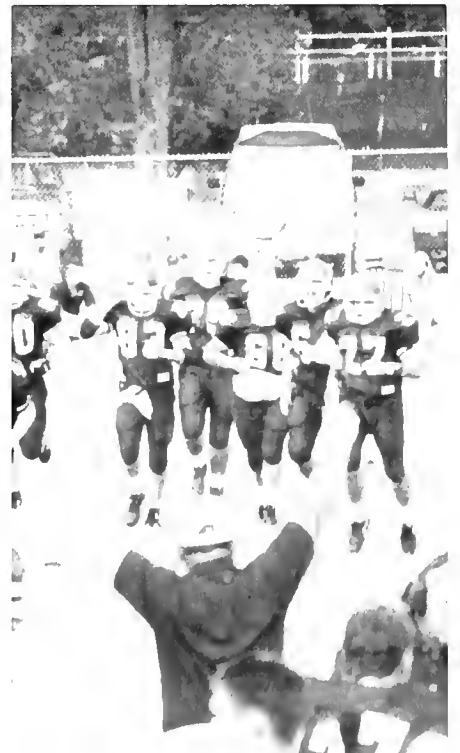

The winning began with the season opener — a home game against Clinch Valley. It was the debut of new Head Coach Herschel Moore and the wing-T offense which took 333 yards while the defense forced 7 turnovers. The Bulldogs intercepted 5 passes and beat CV 24-17. On to Cambellsville — the Bulldogs' defense fortified the win, 26-21, by forcing five more turnovers. The next victim was Tusculum, who fell 17-7 to the Dawgs. After this game, CU was ranked in the top 25 in NAIA Division II rankings. The Bulldogs' record improved to 4-0 after the next game, at Maryville College. The defense held Maryville to 75 yards rushing as the Dawgs won 18-6 and rose in the NAIA rankings to 17th. In a killer home win over Sewanee, the bulldogs held the Tigers to MINUS 52 yards on the ground and sacked the quarterback 15 times. CU won 14-13 and rose to 15th in the NAIA poll. The next team to feel the bite was first year program Sue Bennett. Sloshing around on a muddy Kirk field, the Bulldogs slayed the Dragons 27-0 and rose two notches in the NAIA rankings to 13th. Cu then came up with a 27-24 win against 18th ranked Union, thanks in a huge way to Chris Jefferson's 42-yard scoring pass to Terrance McClain with 1:49 left to play, which pulled the Bulldogs from behind for the victory. The "blizzard" and frigid temps of Homecoming '94 were rough, but it didn't stop the 12th ranked Bulldogs from beating Bethel College 33-12 and rising into the top ten NAIA rankings at no. 9. NCAA Div. III giant Evansville handed the Dawgs their only regular-season loss with a score of 12-28. No matter, the raging Dawgs went to Athens, TN, and won the season finale against TN-Wesleyan 16-9. The Bulldogs finished at no. 14 in the NAIA rankings and headed to Puyallup, Washington, to take on no. 1-ranked Pacific Lutheran in the first round of the NAIA Division II playoffs — a first in the history of Cumberland University. The Lutes came out with the win, 61-7, but the Bulldogs put up a good fight and came home to a school proud of her awesome 1993 football team. The team was accompanied by friends and family to Washington, but as the majority of CU's family was left in Tennessee, John Wood did a great job (as usual) of bringing the game home to us on the radio. He was assisted by injured CU player Jason Harville.

The senior leaders on the team came a long way from the "first year" team of so long ago to join with their teammates in celebrating a dream season. We knew the Dawgs could do it all along! Congratulations to all of the players, coaches, and staff who were part of the program.

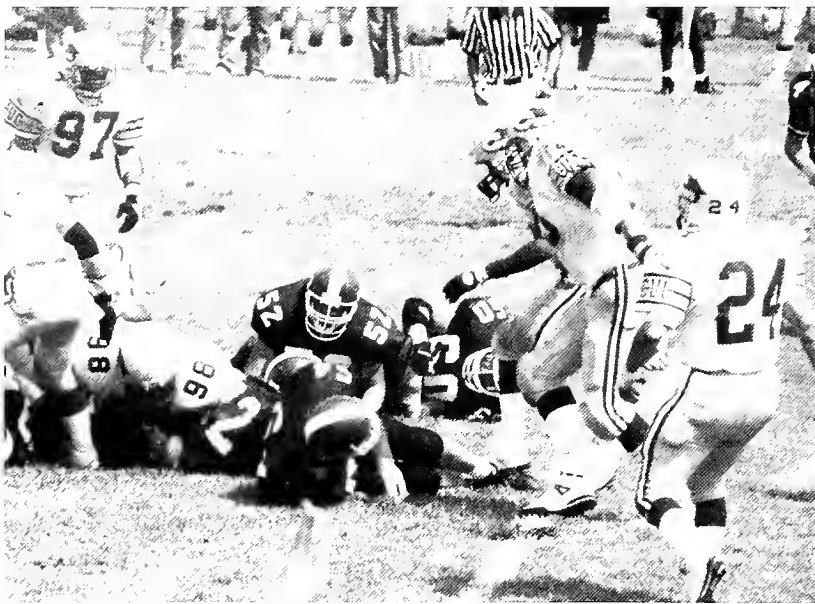

The Bulldogs got a new Head Coach, Herschel Moore. Moore served as an assistant under Nick Coutras and took over at the end of the '92 season. Coach Moore coached high school football in Nashville beginning at Isaac Litton High in the late 1950's. Coach Moore had a great first year, as his Bulldogs went to the first round of the NAIA playoffs and he was named Coach of the Year for NAIA District 24 and Co-Coach of the Year by the Tennessee Sports Writers Association!

The Bulldogs offense runs off the field during the home opener against Clinch Valley, VA.

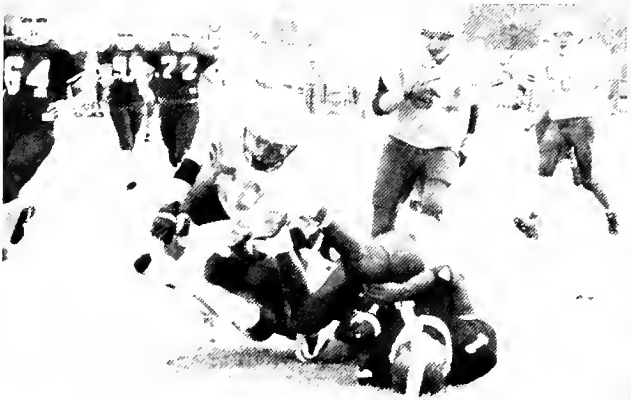

Piling Up Wins

Mario Porter, Scott Shaver, Matt Caudle, and Jon Swindle climb out of a pile with a first down in the beginning minutes against Clinch Valley.

Reginald Gibson nabs the ball carrier from Tusculum while Jon Calhoun, Shaun Hollinsworth, Terry Kirkland, and James Massengille rush to his aid.

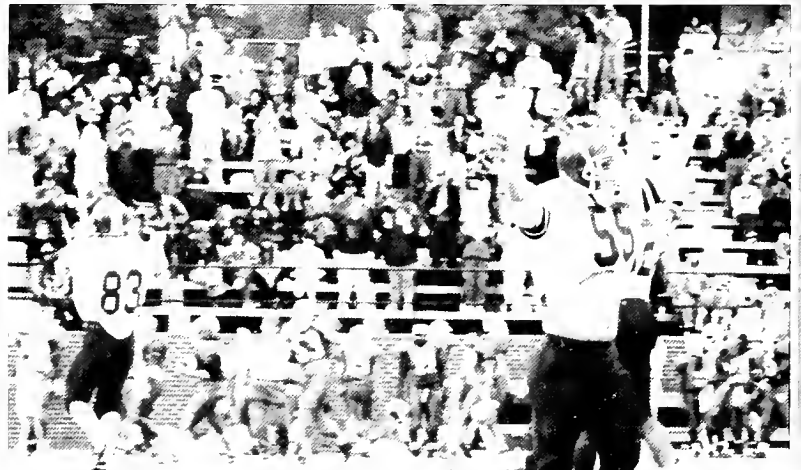

Chris Jefferson tumbles but keeps the ball out of Sewanee's paws.

Bulldogs including Acie Fohrer, Jeff Jones, Jay Massey, Sherman Shockley, Chad Harvey, and Jay Horvath set up a defense in the muck facing Sue Bennett.

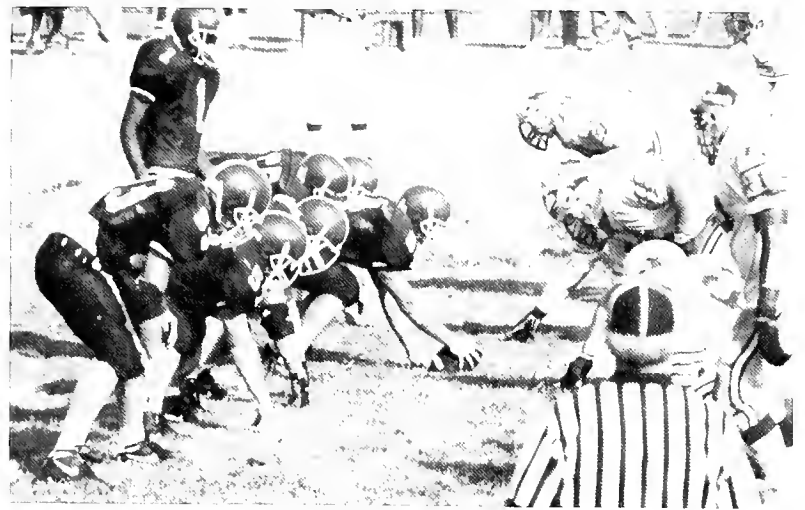

A Homecoming touchdown against Bethel is celebrated with Chris Jefferson by the "end zone bunch".

Quentin Hendrix returns triumphantly to the sidelines after the Dawg Defense recovers a fumble at TN Wesleyan.

Bulldogs Football

Sewanee's quarterback is visited with one of many sacks in the game. Masengille (95) had 78 tackles and was a Second team NAIA All-American.

Bulldogs

The Bulldogs got a new head coach this year. Mike Petrone had served as assistant coach at Vanderbilt University since 1983, as well as head basketball and assistant football coach at Father Ryan High in Nashville. The Bulldogs enjoyed a mid-season 9-game winning streak, the longest for any CU men's team since 1984 (University status). James Washington, a senior from Jacksonville, Florida, was #1 in individual 3-point shooting in the nation.

Homecoming 1993

“The Beginning Of A New Era”

Cumberland University began a new tradition by celebrating its first Football Homecoming on October 30, 1993. (The last basketball homecoming was in January of 1993.) The day was cold, wet, and snowy, but successful. A parade (full of half-frozen people) rode through town, CU beat Bethel 33-12, and out of 24 nominees, a shivering Angie Abbott was crowned the 1993 Homecoming Queen.

Spring Fling Week

Spring Fling Week was a blast this year. The Formal was great, and some new daily events drew a lot of student participation. There was a student talent show on Monday. Winners were rock group "TIN CAN" (A.K.A. Kevin Raney, Steve Spencer, Mike Eubanks, Kit Jenkins, & Cameron Potter) and duo, Christa Green & Russ "Spanky" Noss. The lawn carnival on Wednesday was a big success, with food, SUMO wrestling, sand volleyball, Bungee Running, tunes from 103 KDF, the Gladiator fighting, and the velcro "ACRO-BAT."

CREDITS

The PHOENIX staff had a really hard time picking a cover for this year's book. We thought about a bulldog, but there were several negative comments about having the sports mascot on the cover. The PHOENIX had already been used recently and so had a rendering of Memorial Hall, the school's most recognized symbols. So we decided to use our school seal.

If the book looks a bit thicker, it is because we added 24 pages, taking us from the usual 116 pages to 140 pages.

Most of the art in the book is original art. Artists for the 93-94 book are Brandi Beard, Madeanna Parks, and Erin Vaughn.

Yearbook: The PHOENIX is printed by Jostens. The cover is midnight, with cordova grain and a black rub, and gold foil. The type is Palatino. It contains 140 pages.

The PHOENIX staff would like to recognize the people who helped in putting the yearbook together this year. Special thanks to: Terry Thompson, Judith Kidwell, SGA, Melinda Yarbrough, Leann Allison, Spencer Pope, Sonny Barrett at Seat's Studio, the Collegian Staff, Jim Henderson, Charlie Tatum (CABARET photos), The Lebanon Democrat, The Wilson World, Dr. Daniels, Mr. Harold McGehee, Dr. Ray Phillips, Custom Color, all of the clubs and organizations that helped us so much by submitting stories, season scores, and photos, and anyone else that we might be leaving out that helped us in any way.

Some features use information from articles in the Democrat. The Collegian page uses segments from various issues of the Cumberland Collegian newspaper.
